The Chattering of Teeth and Lack of Common Sanity

Basically, I bet you'll see
At first I'm not quite what I seem
I'll be sure to put a smile
On your silly ugly faces
Everything is show and tell
The eyes don't fool and mess around
Hold our hands and sing along
Nothing lines up anymore

I could never believe
That people aren't what they seem
Everybody hides their face
How could I have noticed?
Nonetheless, we're all the same
That many things are in our heads
Show your smile and sing along
Nothing lines up anymore

Turn around and on an axis
Circulate the fear around you
Make a storm of tears and anger
Ah, my dear, don't worry 'bout me
You and I were made to dispose
We'll consume the things around us
Just accept the things you know and
Look around

Wait
What is going on here?
I'm a little out of sorts
I can feel it slipping
Sanity and things that scare me
Why not try to let go?
I've been feeling out of order
Take it step by step now
Take a good look, this is me
This is what I've come to be
This is what I've come to be

Close your eyes and watch the screen
Display the things you dare not see
I'll be laughing evermore
Everything is show and tell
The eyes don't fool and mess around
Hold our hands and sing along
Nothing matters anymore

Cachinno (Laughing loudly), perdet eam (Losing it), vertigine (Whirling),
Ego sum (I am)
Parare (Preparing), exacuetur (Sharpening), currendo (Moving around),

Ego sum (I am)
Renidet usque ad vos (Grinning at you), rideo, rideo (Laughing, laughing),
Ego sum (I am)
Cachinno (Laughing loudly), perdet eam (Losing it), vertigine (Whirling),
Ego sum (I am)

Oh, what the hell should I do?
I've been feeling out of order
I am slowly losing it
Sanity and things that see me
Face the reality
I'm a little out of sorts
Wear a crooked smile, now
This is what I've come to be
This is what I shouldn't be
This is what I want to be
